

The Jingle Sells

Fair Trade lyrics by:

Olivia, 13, and Tereza Coraggio

Santa Cruz, California

Tune: Jingle Bells

Dashing through the stores on the eve of Christmas day,
through the aisles we go,
pushing carts away (ha, ha, ha)
Cash registers ring,
making Wal-Mart rich,
what a shame that Christmas
makes us buy all of this kitsch.

[Chorus]

O! Tell Mattel
not to sell
toys that children make.
How much sweatshop labor
does our Christmas magic take?
Disney elves
stock the shelves
full of plastic junk.
With the Grinch
we think that

Christmas meanies

stink, stank, stunk.

Raking in the dough,

charging up our card

To the max we go

without a regard (ha, ha, ha)

On our way to pay

if we feel a twitch

We can buy a plush toy

that they give to Make-a-Wish.

[chorus]